

C Thru Windows

Description:

C-Thru prides itself on its maintenance free double glazing and the showroom features a large selection of windows and doors on display. The company can make a conservatory to suit any domestic environment and offers bespoke designs on all products. Although C-Thru deals mainly with the domestic market, applications have included pubs, colleges and other business. All products have a 12 year guarantee as well as a manufacturer's guarantee and the company's emphasis on customer care means that the service department is still making calls to fix minor faults on products installed as long as ten years ago.
